- Own and coordinate all aspects of the sales cycle
- Educate leads, prospects, and customers on the value of RCH solutions
- Provide consultation and education on computing technologies and best practices
- Stay current on the latest trends and factors driving change in the Life Sciences and Healthcare industries

Qualifications:

You're a good fit for this role if you bring:

- 5-7 years of sales experience with quantifiable results that demonstrate sales acumen
- Familiarity selling Services as a solution, as well as Technology Hardware and Software
- Excellent people skills, and the ability to build effective and trusted relationships with professionals across different business types of seniority levels

- An understanding of scientific computing and/or other technical solutions environments
- Experience in the Life Sciences or Healthcare industries, with a concentration in R&D, Development or I.T. preferred
- Excellent communication and presentation skills
- Accountability and motivation to drive results
- The ability to work independently and leverage subject matter expertise to support the sales process
- A passion for discovery and a natural curiosity that pushes you to continually learn and improve

We Offer:

Great talent should benefit from a great work environment. If you join our team, you'll have access to:

- A competitive salary and commission package based on experience
- Comprehensive health and wellness benefits, including Medical, Dental, and Vision Insurance
- Company-provided Life and Long-Term Disability Insurance
- Company-sponsored 401(k) Plan
- Remote work opportunities and flexible work environment
- Team-focused culture and unlimited opportunity for advancement
